Dear Alumni of Indira Gandhi University, Meerpur (Rewari), Haryana

On the solemn and proud occasion of Independence Day, I extend my warmest greetings and best wishes to each one of you.

Independence Day is not only a day to remember the sacrifices of our freedom fighters, but also an occasion to reflect on our responsibility towards the progress and development of our nation.

As proud alumni of Indira Gandhi University, Meerpur (Rewari), you remain an integral and valued part of the University family. Although you have completed your studies at the University, your connection with the University never ends. Your achievements, professional success and contribution to society are a matter of pride for the entire University.

Wherever you are and whatever profession you pursue, you carry with you the knowledge, values and experiences gained at your alma mater. Your success is not merely your personal achievement; it is also a reflection of the collective efforts of the University.

On this special occasion, I invite all of you to remain closely connected with your University. Your knowledge, experience and professional expertise can greatly inspire and guide our present students. I hope that our Alumni Network becomes a strong bridge of knowledge, experience, mentorship and collaboration between our alumni and the University.

Indira Gandhi University is continuously moving forward in the areas of quality education, research, innovation, entrepreneurship and social responsibility. In this journey, our alumni are not merely former students; you are our ambassadors, mentors and partners in the University's growth.

I am confident that your continued association, support and valuable contributions will help us take the University to greater heights.

On this Independence Day, let us pledge to use our knowledge, skills and opportunities not only for our personal growth, but also for the betterment of society and the progress of our nation.

Wherever you may be, may you continue to achieve excellence, uphold the values of your alma mater and make Indira Gandhi University proud.

Once again, I extend my warmest wishes to all our alumni and their families on the occasion of Independence Day.

Jai Hind! Jai Bharat!
