

NOTIFICATION

It is notified for information of all concerned that the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor is pleased to approve the following guidelines relating to the students who got admitted during the session 2025-26 in UG/PG programmes being run in affiliated College(s) of Education(s) but detained due to shortage of attendance:

1. Such a student will not be promoted to the next semester/year till he/she completes the requisite percentage of attendance as per Ordinance of respective programme.
2. Such student(s) shall re-admitted in the 1st year or respective year, as the case may be, in which they have been detained due to shortage of attendance, subject to maximum duration to complete the programme.
3. Such students are not required to participate in the centralized admission process. However, the student(s) are required to submit an application to the concerned college for re-admission in the respective year.
4. The Principal of the concerned college shall supply the information to the University for re-admission of such students in the 1st year of B.Ed. programme before starting of admission process so the respective seat(s) required for re-admission of such student(s) may be deducted from the total intake of respective college before publishing of the information for admission process for 1st year of B.Ed. programme through centralized admission process to maintain the sanctioned intake of the respective college as per NCTE guidelines.
5. Such students will have to pay fee being charged from the students of that year. Such student(s) are required to pay the fee of continuation return instead of registration return being already registered student.
