under improved conditions. Officials said such cases highlight how counselling remains one of the most effective tools, especially where victims seek resolution rather than separation.

In a separate case, a Gurgaon woman accused her husband and in-laws of physical assault, financial coercion and repeated abuse. She alleged that she was forced to bring money from her parental home and was threatened with death. The centre intervened, conducted counselling sessions and secured a written undertaking from the husband promising to end the violence. While such compromises are often complex, officials said they are guided by the woman's consent and immediate safety considerations.

Officials at the centre said that beyond the rise in numbers, there is a clear increase in awareness, with more women now willing to report abuse, fraud, stalking and harassment. "However, the surge has also put pressure on limited resources. Despite handling nearly 2,000 cases a year, the centre operates with just three to four staff members, far below the required strength. Key positions such as counsellors, legal advisers and medical professionals remain vacant, impacting the scale of services," an official said.

nabbed a sub-inspector (SI) for allegedly accepting a bribe of Rs 1 lakh at Paschim Vihar (west) police station in outer district.

Following the development, the station house officer (SHO) of the police station has been sent to the district lines.

A source said the action is linked to a case registered in March after a dispute, in which charges of culpable homicide not amounting to murder were invoked.

According to police records, the SI had allegedly demanded Rs 1 lakh from a comp-

Gurgaon: The state vigilance and anti-corruption bureau lodged an FIR against district food and supplies controller (DFSC) Ashok Rawat and a food supply department sub-inspector, Jaiveer, for allegedly demanding a Rs 20,000 bribe from a ration depot owner to ensure continuous ration supply to their district.

probe indicated that the sub-inspector insisted on the payment and said he was instructed by a senior officer to do so posed. On Nov 3, he visited the DFSC's office with his father where Jaiveer demanded Rs 20,000 to ensure that the depot's ration supply was not stopped.

An audio recording examined during the probe indicated that the sub-inspec-
